

RUDOLF STEINER SCHOOL OF ANN ARBOR
SPECIAL MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES AND COLLEGE OF TEACHERS
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2022

Present: Elizabeth Head, Knut Hill, Jim McCauley, Tim Standke, Paul Trombley, Gary Banks, Heather Rindels

Others Present: Sian Owen-Cruise, College of Teachers

Paul Trombley (College Chair) began the meeting at 5:32pm

Review of Proposed Covid-19 Plan Updates by Sian including:

- Keep all masking rules as they are now, masking indoors and no required masking outdoors, until Monday, March 7.
- Keep all the non-masking aspects of the current COVID-19 plan in place until at least April 8, the start of Spring Break.
- Starting on March 7, EC Classrooms will continue masking and we will re-evaluate every three weeks going forward.
- Starting on March 7, Grades One to Eight make mask wearing voluntary.
- Starting on March 7, High School will continue masking until at least April 8 – the start of Spring Break.

Questions and Discussion of proposed plan:

- College of Teachers raised questions about the plan design, answered by Sian. Teachers expressed general support for the plan.
- Trustees raised questions about the plan design, answered by Sian with additional feedback by Teachers.

Vote on proposed plan to be performed by email after meeting.

A motion to approve the proposed COVID-19 Plan Updates was made via email by Knut Hill with support from Paul Trombley. Email votes were acknowledged, there were no dissentions and the motion carried.